

NANA MANDL, 2017

we couldn't connect on a spiritual level, but we managed online

holy mind mapping
windows overlapping
the space between
flat as a screen
praying for attention
paying for expansion over privileged stream of serial distraction with not a single action a never ending fight
vote left or right
make ur shape look tight lonely net working
smart swipe
full on delusion
endless confusion
framed bits but
no conclusion
